Description

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) intends to procure support for the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response/Emergency Response and Removal Division for fast, responsive, environmental cleanup services for hazardous substances/wastes/contaminants/materials and petroleum products/oil in EPA Region II in the states of New York and New Jersey. EPA intends to post the notice for Request For Proposals (RFP) on FedBizOpps on or around June 17, 2004. The RFP will be available on EPA website <http://www.epa.gov/oam/srpod/index.htm> after the date the notice is posted. This procurement will be a partial set-aside for small businesses. The resultant contract will be time-and-materials, with an estimated value between $200,000,000 and $250,000,000 over a 60-month period of performance. The expected labor hour utilization for the contract ranges between 186,600 and 186,700 regular hours and between 41,000 and 41,200 overtime hours over the 60-month period of performance. The NAICS code for this procurement is 562910. Please do not submit proposals in response to this announcement. Please direct any questions to Tanya Hoston at hoston.tanya@epa.gov or 202-564-0996 or Carolyn Rossmann at rossmann.carolyn@epa.gov or 202-564-2669. Information regarding this announcement is also posted to FedBizOpps at <http://www.fedbizopps.gov>
